LET THE RECORD REFLECT that the parties have reached a full agreement on all issues in open Court which is stated on the record.

Both parties testify that the agreement is in fact their agreement, is fair and equitable, is in the best interest of the parties' minor child, and that they agree to be bound by it as an enforceable order of this Court.

THE COURT FINDS that the parties have reached an agreement pursuant to Rule 69, Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure.

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that the agreement is fair and equitable and is in the best interest of the parties' minor child and approves that agreement as an enforceable order of this Court. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED as follows:

- The minor child shall reside primarily with Mother.
- Father shall exercise supervised parenting time on alternating weeks up to two visits no more than five hours each.
- Parenting Skills shall continue to supervise Father's parenting time, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties.
- Father's supervised parenting time shall not infringe upon Mother's or the child's school schedules or other special occasions.
- Father's supervised parenting time shall be immediately terminated at the child's request.
- The parenting time schedule set forth above shall remain in place for at least one year prior to any modification, except in the case of an emergency.
- Father may consult with the child's teachers at the teachers' discretion.
- Father shall be consistent in his therapy for PTSD and personality disorder and remain compliant with any prescribed medications and/or treatment.
- If private insurance becomes available to Father, Father shall seek treatment through his insurance benefits to supplement and/or expedite his treatment through the VA.

Discussion is held regarding attorneys' fees and costs.

Ricoh Danielson, having previously been sworn, testifies.
